	BARRIERS

Provide a description of any barriers that prevented parents from participating during the previous school year. Describe the steps the school will take for the coming school year to overcome these barriers (with attention to parents/families with disabilities, limited English speakers, students living in unstable housing situations, and parents/families of migrant children) [ESEA Section 1116].

Barriers Areas	Plan of Action (Steps)
Homelessness	Parents who were expieriencing homelessness and/or financial difficulty were unable to participate in parent and family engagement events and activities during the previous school year due to lack of transportation. Project Up start coordinator who is also the school social worker will provide assistance to families to connect them with resources to assist them with financing planning, affortdat housing, transportation, etc. She will also link them and provide referrals to agencies who can provide additional assistance.
Unfamiliar with School System	Parents who are unfamiliar with the school system struggled previously with engaging with other families and understanding the resources provided within our school. These families will be assigned a Parent Ambassador who is well-versed on the school system and familiar with all policies and procedures. These ambassadors will provide information and support to families who may need additional resources to familiarize themself with the school system.
	PARENT AND FAMILY FEEDBACK
Family Engagement Plan (Pl child's education throughout	Irages parents and families to work in collaboration with the school to develop, review, and revise the Title I School-level Parent and FEP). The PFEP is a tool that is used to determine how well our school is partnering with you and promoting your involvement in your the school. Your feedback is important in helping us in continually improving the PFEP and the parent and family engagement program ded contact information below so that you can learn about the different ways you can be a part of this home school connection.
